I wished to see them because I like to see our men keep alive the spirit which enabled the men of the dark years of 61--65 to do their duty. And I want you to remember the lesson that they taught us. You may notice, friends, that I have not been promising you the millennium if you vote my way. I have not been telling you, and shall not tell you, that if you do your duty you will have a life of ease and pleasure. I do not think we shall have the millennium, but I think we are not to be excused if we do not try measurably to improve our condition. I am not advising you to act so as to make life more easy for you; I am not advising you to act in a spirit that shall disregard what is difficult; I am not advising you to get around obstacles; but I am advising you so that you can overcome them. I think all of you here know the unwise man, -- I am sorry to say, as often the unwise woman, --who, because he or she has had a hard time in life, foolishly refuses to teach the children how best to meet the difficulties in life. It often happens that such a woman wishes her daughter brought up like a lady, meaning thereby that the daughter shall be brought up a perfectly useless individual; and I think we...
